Treasurer Schuller and Rep. Brooks Find Missing Money! Appear on WRCO and Help Richland Center Residents Search Unclaimed Property

(Madison) State Treasurer Kurt Schuller and Representative Ed Brooks are talking to the WRCO morning show with Ron Fruit RIGHT NOW (9:00-10:00 AM) to discuss the unclaimed property program and Wisconsin's economy.

Immediately following between 10:00-11:00 A.M. Schuller and Brooks will assist Richland Center Residents find their share of more than $400 Million in Unclaimed Property at an event in the City Council Chambers at the Richland Center City Hall.

"We are delighted to work with Representative Brooks to help more Wisconsinites find their missing money," Schuller said. "We are also pleased to share with our legislators what is that we do here in the Office and assist people in every district."

"Last year the Office of the State Treasurer returned more than a quarter million dollars right here in the 50th Assembly District and $30 Million statewide," said Rep. Brooks. "The unclaimed property program still holds more than $400 million in money that is owed to Wisconsinites. People should definitely take the time to stop by City Hall and check for their names."

The Unclaimed Property database holds properties valued at more than $400 million dollars waiting to be claimed. This money comes from forgotten paychecks, insurance premium overpayments, utility deposits, forgotten bank accounts, forgotten stocks, abandoned safe deposit boxes and many other forms of assets that have been lost, forgotten about or that people did not even know they had! There are more than 2 million "properties" held by the Office of State Treasurer. You can search for missing money 24/7 online at www.wismissingmoney.com or call 855-375-CASH (2274)
